

CONFERENCING WITH A DIFFERENCE

At Blackbrook House we try and make every persons visit enjoyable no matter what the occasion. Hospitality, service and food are so important to us and conferencing is no exception. It is imperative that your guests and staff enjoy their experience with you so that they want to take time out of their busy schedules to come and listen to your company messages, learn about new initiatives and participate in team building workshops or one-on-one meetings to their full.

We offer a variety of new style and traditional conferencing which will help ensure your delegate numbers are high and your attendance rates exceptional, whilst still providing you with good value for money in today's tough times.

At Blackbrook House we have a wealth of event management knowledge and skills. In order to get the most from your event, all of our team will happily engage with you to ensure a successful and stress free interaction.
